

Aquifer and Wellhead Update

Quick Facts

- Changes do not affect residential wells
- Changes protect public water supplies by regulating land use within 400 feet of such wells
- Changes correct a rule that could deny people reasonable use of their property without compensation
- Changes do not allow for any increases in development